

Hijaz Nefes

21

Kaygusuz Abdal (d.1444), tr. A. Murad

Anatolian traditional

♩ = 104 Devr-i Hindi

1. Like a great em-per or man In this pa - lace dwells
 2. Man's a veil by His deed Co - ve - ring its face
 5 3. For the soul is His house Bro - ther this now learn

For the per - - fect forms of man For the truth are But his soul wi - thin was freed To speak a gainst the Mus - ta - fa has spo-ken thus Ne - ver his words shells shells base base

 spurn spurn

- | | |
|---|--|
| 1. Like a great emperor, man
 In this palace dwells
 For the perfect forms of man
 For the truth are shells. 2. Man's a veil by His deed,
 Covering its face,
 But his soul within was freed
 To speak against the base. 3. For the soul is His house,
 Brother, this now learn;
 Mustafa has spoken thus,
 Never his words spurn. | 4. Every knowledge is inside
 For the soul is vast,
 God's own speech, from being's tide,
 On the soul was cast. 5. Speech and soul, and the flesh,
 By His will were made,
 By His will, in that mesh Hidden, Truth has stayed. 6. Hero, witness that you are The secret of the soul,
 Kaygusuz calls near and far,
 Listen to his call. |
|---|--|